STATEMENT OF THE OWNERSHIP, MANAGEMENT, CIRCULATION, ETC., REQUIRED BY THE ACT OF CONGRESS OF AUGUST 24, 1912.

Of The Sunday Telegram, published every Sunday at Clarksburg, W. Va., for the year ending December 31, 1915.

Before me, a notary public in and for the State and county aforesaid, personally appeared J. J. Devine, who, having been duly sworn according to law, deposes and says that he is the manager of The Sunday Telegram, and that the following is, to the best of his knowledge and belief, a true statement of the ownership, management, circulation, etc., of the newspaper, published by the act of August 24, 1912, embodied in section 443, Postal Laws and Regulations, printed on the reverse of this form, to-wit:

1. That the names and addresses of the publisher, editor, managing editor, and business managers are:
Publisher, Clarksburg Telegram Co., Clarksburg, W. Va.
Editors, W. C. Morrison and W. L. Geppert, Clarksburg, W. Va.
Managing Editor, none.

2. That the owners (Give names and addresses of individual owners, or, if a corporation, give its name and the names and addresses of stockholders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of the total amount of stock.)
S. C. Denham, Clarksburg, W. Va.
W. C. Morrison, Clarksburg, W. Va.
C. B. Highland, New Martinsville, W. Va.

3. That the known bondholders, mortgagees, and other security holders owning or holding 1 per cent or more of total amount of bonds, mortgages, or other securities are:
The International Typetting Machine Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

4. That the two paragraphs next above, giving the names of the owners, stockholders, and security holders, if any, contain not only the list of stockholders, bondholders, and security holders as they appear upon the books of the company, but also, in cases where the stockholder or security holder appears upon the books of the company as trustee or in any other fiduciary relation, the name and address of the person or corporation by whom such trustee is acting, if given; and that the said two paragraphs contain statements embracing affiant's full knowledge and belief as to the circumstances and conditions under which stock, bonds, mortgages, or other securities have been placed in the hands of the persons named, and that the affiant has no reason to believe that any other person, bonds, or other securities has any interest direct or indirect in the said stock, bonds, or other securities than as so stated by him.

5. That the average number of copies of each issue of this publication sold or distributed through the mails or otherwise, to paid subscribers during the six months preceding the date shown above is 3,412.

6. That the average number of copies of The Sunday Telegram printed and circulated each issue during the month of March, 1916, was 3,412.

J. J. DEVINE, Manager.
Sworn to and subscribed before me this 8th day of April, 1916.
A. F. COMBS, Notary Public.
My commission expires June 15, 1921.
